

Monday, October 13, 2008

Shoalhaven Community Radio Inc
Licensee of 2UUU & Shoalhaven FM
Community Broadcaster to the Shoalhaven

PRESS RELEASE - JOURNALIST POSITIONS AVAILABLE

Shoalhaven FM invites expressions of interest from suitably qualified individuals who could be employed/contracted to collect & compile local news from the Shoalhaven area to be broadcast by Shoalhaven FM as a local news service. It is expected that the local news service will be broadcast daily on Shoalhaven FM and will complement the Macquarie National News already being broadcast by Shoalhaven FM.

Shoalhaven FM is excited by the prospect of having a local news service which will be initially exclusive to Shoalhaven FM.

This proposed local news service and has been made possible by an offer of seed funding which will cover the cost of the service for the first 12 months of operation.

It is anticipated that 2 part time positions will be available initially. The successful applicants will be required to travel throughout the Shoalhaven and to have their own transport, telephone and PC/Laptop with an internet service. Successful applicants will be expected to operate from their own home/office for the most part.

Consideration could be given to applicants currently employed by other media services and who wish to offer their services on a contract or part time basis or to applicants who are just retired or are still in training

In the first instance please write, detailing your experience/qualifications. Applications will be treated with respect and in the strictest confidence

Applications to;

Garry Nosworthy
News Service.
Shoalhaven FM
PO Box 884,
Nowra. 2541. NSW