Featured Band: The Felice Brothers. Forming in the Catskills, upstate New York, in 2006, the original line-up comprised three actual brothers, Jan (vocals, guitar, piano) Simone (drums, guitar, vocals) and James (vocals, accordion, organ, piano) plus friends Christmas Chapman (bass) and Greg Farley (washboard, fiddle). Playing a ragged revivalist folk/country/ rock, their career has rambled from busking the NY subway to playing prestigious festivals around the world. One English critic described their music as "it seems drawn not so much from grass roots experience, as dug determinedly up from the very subsoil of American music". In 2009 Simone left, subsequently forming The Duke and the King (with Robert "Chicken" Burke). Drumming duties were taken over by Dave Turbeville. The Felice Brothers have released seven albums and The Duke and the King have issued their debut.
